

CITIZENSHIP IN SOCIETY MERIT BADGE TRAINING

Chief Seattle Council invites merit badge counselors, leaders, parents, and Scouts to learn about this new badge.

Training Course Content:

- Learn about the BSA's commitment to DEI and the work being done on a local level to promote DEI in Scouting.
- Hear from local counselors who were part of the badge's development, and learn about their experiences working with Scouts during the badge's testing phase.
- Review badge requirements, and learn about resources available to assist counselors and Scouts.
- Learn about plans for upcoming Workshop on Citizenship in Society planned for June, and how to get involved.

Chief Seattle Council's Commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion:

Chief Seattle Council is committed to creating pathways for all families to join Scouting. To learn more about the council's commitment to DEI, click here.

Chief Seattle Council
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Wednesday, March 16, 7pm
Virtual Training

Click Here to Register

www.seattlebsa.org/DEI

About the Merit Badge

This badge is the latest initiative as part of the BSA's ongoing commitment to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion, and will be required for the rank of Eagle Scout beginning July 1, 2022. Learn more.

Merit Badge Resources:

Citizenship in Society Requirements

Citizenship in Society Fact Sheet

How to become a merit badge counselor

Chaffin Hornor
206-902-2329
chornor@seattlebsa.org

www.seattlebsa.org