

This certificate deems the bearer a free camping weekend at any Chief Seattle Council camp. As Territory Training Chair I certify that I have confirmed each position meets the required training as put forth by Scouting America.

- Return this certificate to your Territory Training Chair to verify the completion of all coursework.
- Training chair will certify in my.scouting the completion of all training.
- Once that is completed the unit will forward the certificate to the camping department (campingdept@seattlebsa.org) who will contact the unit to book the weekend .

**The weekend certificate covers the cost of the campsite, which requires booking through the camping department. Dates are based on availability. Additional facilities and amenities such may be available for an extra charge.*
