Leadership Transition

District Commissioner

- This leader is recommended by the district nominating committee for approval and appointment by the council executive board with the concurrence of the Scout Executive. The district commissioner leads the commissioner staff of the district, guiding and measuring the districts unit service function of the program. The district commissioner is one member of the district key 3. The district chairman and the district executive make up the other members of the key 3.
- Principal Responsibilities:
 1. Develop a vision for unit service in the district and a plan to fulfill the vision.
 2. Recruit a full staff of commissioners to include assistant district commissioners, roundtable commissioners and unit commissioners.
 3. Oversee the training program for all commissioners in the district and encouraging commissioners to take training.
 4. Guide unit commissioners to contact each unit regularly, identify unit strengths and needs, and using the Unit Service Plan, make plans to meet their needs.
 5. Ensure that unit commissioners are performing detailed collaborative assessments which is the precursor to creating a unit service plan.
 6. Encourage unit commissioners to enter both their unit contacts and unit service plans in Commissioner Tools.
 7. Make sure the roundtable commissioners are providing a vibrant roundtable.
